Hiring An International Student

Did you know?

You can hire eligible international students while they study

They may be eligible to work off campus without a work permit:

- for up to 20 hours a week while class is in session, and
- full-time during scheduled breaks

To qualify, students must:

- ✓ have a valid study permit
- ✓ have begun their studies in an eligible program
- ✓ be studying full-time at an eligible post-secondary institution, and
- ✓ have a Social Insurance Number (SIN)

In some cases, international students may be able to work more than 20 hours per week off campus while classes are in progress.

Hiring An International Graduate

Did you know?

You can hire eligible international students after they graduate

Those who have completed all requirements to graduate,

- may be eligible to apply for a Post-Graduation Work Permit; and
- Some may begin working full-time without a work permit while their work permit application is being processed.

They need to show you their:

- ✓ valid study permit
- ✓ completion letter or final transcript,
and
- ✓ proof they applied for a work permit

Finding Foreign Talent in Canada

- Connect with candidates already in Canada based on the skills, knowledge, and experience that you are looking for: www.jobbank.gc.ca

- You can connect with other newcomers in Canada through IRCC-funded organizations like the Immigrant Employment Council and the Réseau en immigration francophone.

Finding Ukrainian Nationals

Connect with Ukrainian nationals and their family members looking to work in Canada: <https://www.jobbank.gc.ca/findajob/resources/jobsforukraine#er>

- Open work permits for Ukrainians: Learn about the process Ukrainian nationals can follow to apply for an open work permit in Canada.
- How to use Job Bank to recruit and hire: Learn how to register an employer and create job postings on Job Bank.
- Provincial and territorial resources: Find resources offered by some provinces and territories for employers who want to recruit Ukrainian nationals.
