

Figure S1. The University of Calgary’s Faculty of Veterinary Medicine (UCVM) Pre-Induction Checklist

UCVM Pre-induction checklist		When should this be used? Before induction of general anesthesia. Who should be present? All members of anesthesia team.
<input type="checkbox"/>	CONFIRM VERBALLY with all team members Patient ID, owner consent, procedure & site
<input type="checkbox"/>	IV ACCESS patent MEDICATIONS <input type="checkbox"/> prepared, <input type="checkbox"/> volumes confirmed, <input type="checkbox"/> labelled AIRWAY EQUIPMENT prepared and tested: <input type="checkbox"/> ET tubes [3], <input type="checkbox"/> cuffs tested, <input type="checkbox"/> tube tie, <input type="checkbox"/> laryngoscope, <input type="checkbox"/> lube, <input type="checkbox"/> gauze <input type="checkbox"/> ET TUBE insertion depth PRE-MEASURED
<input type="checkbox"/>	ANAESTHETIC MACHINE checked today Breathing system LEAK TESTED for this case APL VALVE open OXYGEN pipeline supply CONNECTED ADEQUATE OXYGEN in E cylinder
<input type="checkbox"/>	DISTRIBUTION OF TASKS between team members
<input type="checkbox"/>	Patient/procedural RISKS IDENTIFIED & COMMUNICATED
<input type="checkbox"/>	EMERGENCY INTERVENTIONS available

Used in conjunction with: 1) pre-anesthesia checkout procedure, 2) pre-anesthesia equipment checklist
 Adapted from: The Association of Veterinary Anaesthetists Anaesthetic Safety Checklist

Designed by: DSJ Pang (2023), VSY Leung

