

Figure 2. Illustration of a high volume and flow rate bladder lavage procedure in a sedated horse in a standing position. A pump is connected to the endoscope channel, allowing for a fast flow of lavage solution generating efficient sediment dislodgment with subsequent reversal of the flow direction for fast suctioning and sediment removal.